COPYRIGHT AND RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted materials. The various state privacy acts govern the use of materials that document private individuals, groups, and corporations.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a reproduction if the document does not infringe the privacy rights of an individual, group, or corporation. These specified conditions of authorized use include:

- non-commercial and non-profit study, scholarship, or research, or teaching
- criticism, commentary, or news reporting
- as a NPS preservation or security copy
- as a research copy for deposit in another institution

If a user later uses a copy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," the user may be personally liable for copyright, privacy, or publicity infringement. This institution's permission to obtain a photographic, xerographic, digital, or other copy of a document doesn't indicate permission to publish, exhibit, perform, reproduce, sell, distribute, or prepare derivative works from this document without first obtaining permission from the copyright holder and from any private individual, group, or corporation shown or otherwise recorded.

Permission to publish, exhibit, perform, reproduce, prepare derivative works from, sell, or otherwise distribute the item must be obtained by the user separately in writing from the holder of the original copyright(or if the creator is dead from his/her heirs) as well as from any individual(s), groups, or corporations whose name, image, recorded words, or private information (e.g., employment information) may be reproduced in the source material. The holder of the original copyright isn't necessarily the National Park Service. The National Park Service is not legally liable for copyright, privacy, or publicity infringement when materials are wrongfully used after being provided to researchers for "fair use."

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if fulfillment of the order is judged in violation of copyright or federal or state privacy or publicity law.

HISTORY

Independence National Historical Park (INDE) was authorized by an act of Congress on June 28, 1948, and was formally established on July 4, 1956, “preserving for the benefit of the American people as a national historical park certain historical structures and properties of outstanding and national significance...associated with the American Revolution and the founding and growth of the United States.” Located in the Society Hill, Old City, and Germantown neighborhoods of Philadelphia, Independence National Historical Park encompasses not only such famous sites and artifacts as Independence Hall, Congress Hall, and the Liberty Bell, but over twenty other structures, gardens, squares, and cemeteries. These include the reconstructed Graff House (site where Thomas Jefferson drafted the Declaration of Independence), Franklin Court (site of Benjamin Franklin’s house), Carpenters’ Hall (meeting place of the First Continental Congress), and the Deshler-Morris House (where George Washington lived for brief periods in 1793 and 1794).

Throughout the park’s history, the administrative unit currently known as the Interpretation and Visitor Services Division has been responsible for communicating the historical significance of the sites, historical structures, and artifacts of Independence National Historical Park to its many visitors through exhibits, publications, tours, and educational programs. Interpretation and Visitor Services educated a diverse public concerning the American Revolution and early history of the United States history, as well as on the importance of the preservation and stewardship of America’s historic resources.

Other services managed by the Interpretation and Visitor Services Division include improving park facilities to accommodate all visitors regardless of physical or communication challenges; creating waysides to guide visitors to park sites; designing brochures in large print or foreign languages; and formulating ticketing policies and procedures.

INDE’s frequent organizational changes from 1956 to 1979 affected the responsibilities of Interpretation and Visitor Services, leading to several significant position changes for staff members. In 1979, the Interpretation and Visitor Services Division became the official title for the division handling interpretive activities and visitor services. Prior to this, interpretation at INDE was performed by staff members whose job titles ranged from tour guide, museum curator, park ranger to architect, archeologist, and historian. As formal job titles and division names changed, the responsibilities frequently overlapped with other divisions. The core responsibility, regardless of division, was to research the history of the activities related to the park’s interpretive themes as well as the history of the structures in and around INDE and present the information to the public in a concise and cohesive manner through tours, brochures, exhibits, publications, and educational activities.

From 1950 to 1961, INDE’s chief priority was land acquisition. During this period, staff historians conducted research to establish patterns of ownership, chains of title, and property boundaries for 123 properties. Additionally, they conducted research on the renovation, rehabilitation, and reconstruction of these properties to create a park environment based on colonial and early federal architectural styles. After historians completed the initial research, they focused on producing structure reports and furnishing plans. This initial emphasis resulted in limited interpretive services for visitors at INDE.

A push to improve on the interpretation branch for visitors occurred in 1959. At this time, the National Park Service hired James R. Sullivan to perform a study on INDE's visitor services programs. Following the study, INDE hired Sullivan as a historian. In 1960, he became Chief of Visitor Services following a reorganization that created two branches within the Division of Interpretation: the Branch of Research and Planning and the Branch of Visitor Services. The primary goal of the Branch of Visitor Services was to create tours and brochures for visitors and train INDE volunteers and guides. Although it started small, the Branch of Visitor Services eventually evolved into a staff of eight or nine who served as tour guides under Sullivan's direction.

The anticipated significance of the 1976 Bicentennial of the American Revolution resulted in a number of additional reorganizations of the Division of Interpretation. Emphasis shifted to interpretation to support the opening or restoring of sites such as the Graff House, City Tavern, Old City Hall, Franklin Court, the First Bank of the United States, the Visitor Center, Gloria Dei, Thaddeus Kosciuszko House, the Deshler-Morris House, and Liberty Bell Pavilion.

In 1971, INDE separated interpretation from visitor services and merged the Branch of Visitor Services with Visitor Protection. In 1979, Interpretation and Visitor Services came together again as the Interpretation and Visitor Services Division. Over the preceding thirty years, Interpretation and Visitor Services changed multiple times. Until 1994 it contained the special events function. Interpretation and Visitor Services expanded its education programs in 1997 by developing the Independence Park Institute, an educational resource and park site for teachers and students. It also added additional interpretative themes, such as the Underground Railroad, a theme that emerged from the National Underground Network to Freedom Act of 1998 (Public Law 105-203, 112 Stat. 678, 16 USC 4691). These changes kept INDE in step with current issues and debates.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

INTERPRETATION AND VISITOR SERVICES RECORDS 1852-2011, undated (bulk dates: 1948-2010)

CATALOG NUMBER INDE 74045

VOLUME 101.50 LF

DESCRIPTION These records document the history of Independence National Historical Park (INDE) and the history and activities of the Interpretation and Visitor Service Division at INDE. Records document the park's administrative history, the history of its buildings, and the history of the events that make the park a place of national historical significance.

Spanning primarily from 1948 to 2010, the records include correspondence, publications, exhibit planning materials, building and site files, educational planning material, photographs, activity reports, audio cassettes, event and media permits, interview transcripts, maps, newspaper clippings, research materials and reports, television and radio scripts, speeches, visitor program records, work reports, budget planning documents, and park development materials. The collection also contains institutional files of INDE's educational outreach organization, the Independence Park Institute.

Strengths of the collection include thorough documentation of numerous exhibits, projects, and programs developed by the Interpretation and Visitor Services Division. This includes correspondence between involved parties, proposals, exhibit layouts, and evaluative reports. The records also include an extensive number of brochures and site bulletins covering site information and interpretative themes. Additional strengths include records of the development and planning of Franklin Court, the City Tavern, and the Independence Visitor Center.

The records also contain numerous departmental reports, such as the Annual Narrative, Interpretive Prospectus, Statement for Interpretation, and Record of Work Performed. While there are not complete runs of these reports, they offer perspectives on the interpretive planning and decisions of the Interpretation and Visitor Services Division.

ORGANIZATION

The records are organized into eight series arranged in the following order: Administrative Files (1937, 1942-2010, undated), Program Files (1945-2011, undated), Reference Files (1852-2009, undated [Bulk 1956-2009]), American Revolution Bicentennial Project (1966-1983, 1989, undated), Photographs and Audio-Visual Material (1915-1996, undated), Independence Park Institute (1987-2010, undated [Bulk 1997-2007]), Chief of Interpretation and Visitor Services, (1967-2003, undated [Bulk 1986-2002]), and Interpretation Specialist (1949, 1965, 1975-2010, undated [Bulk 1983-2003]). Each series is arranged into subseries, with many subseries also arranged into sub-subseries.

For organization and arrangement information on the series level, consult that series' scope and content note.

PROVENANCE

The current finding aid represents an integration of two record groups, the Office of History and Interpretation and Interpretation and Visitor Services. The intent of integrating these two record groups is to provide a single finding aid for all INDE interpretation activities. The accreted Interpretation and Visitor Services Records are intellectually integrated within the Office of History and Interpretation Records; however, in order to preserve the cohesion of the accessioned records, the two collections are not physically integrated.

The first record group, the Office of History and Interpretation Records, documents history and interpretation activities before the creation of the Interpretation and Visitor Services Division. This former group includes records of the 1983 Archives Project, comprising formally collected archival materials of the Office of History and Interpretation. In this project, INDE staff found materials in piles, filing cabinets, and boxes throughout the park's sites. The lack of a central repository led to the loss of many archival materials and an unclear provenance for the materials collected.

The Office of History and Interpretation Records consist of three sets of records: the Office of History records; Administration and Interpretation Division records; and American Revolution Bicentennial records. The Office of History records include records created by and research materials collected by that office. The “Administrative” files include operations of the Interpretation Division and Protective Division records related to special events. Assistant Regional Director George A. Palmer’s Bicentennial Interview Project files are the majority of the American Revolution Bicentennial records.

The second record group in the finding aid is the Interpretation and Visitor Services Records. These records are accreted into the existing History and Interpretation Records. The Interpretation and Visitor Services records document the activities of the Interpretation and Visitor Services Division, created in 1979. The resulting title of the finding aid after the two record groups are integrated is the “Interpretation and Visitor Services Records,” a title reflecting all of INDE’s interpretation activities in 2011.

The first record group, Office of History and Interpretation Records, contains five series with the following date spans; Administrative Files, 1937-1987; Programmatic Files, 1945-1988, undated; Reference Files, 1852-1982, undated (bulk dates 1950-1978); American Revolution Bicentennial Project, 1950-1989, undated; and Separated Photographs, 1929-1980, undated (bulk dates 1950-1976). The accreted Interpretation and Visitor Services Records are integrated into existing series; however, these series do not accommodate the entire scope of all the accreted records. Three series are added to the records; Independence Park Institute, Chief of Interpretation and Visitor Services, and Interpretation Specialist. Additionally, the Separated Photographs series is amended and titled, Photographs and Audio-Visual Materials, to reflect the scope of the newly acquired records.

SERIES DESCRIPTIONS

I. SERIES I. ADMINISTRATIVE FILES, 1937, 1942-2007, 2010, undated

This series documents the administrative functions of the division. The series is arranged into three subseries in the following order: General, Staff and Staff Activities, and Correspondence. Photographs separated from the series are found in box 65, and map case drawer 164, folder 1 contains separated oversized items.

A. SUBSERIES A. GENERAL, 1937, 1948-2003, undated

This subseries contains reports, budget planning material, brochures, publications, management plans, and general subject files related to the administrative history of INDE. Located throughout the subseries are files on other (non-NPS) organizations. Folders are arranged alphabetically by title.

Records regarding the administrative history of INDE and its master plan files form the bulk of the materials. Master Plan files (1948-1976) include records documenting the park's establishment and growth. These records document development of the INDE property and include printed plans, legislative bills, and correspondence about specific buildings and building groups. The Master Plan files between 1970 and 1976 also contain panoramic sketches of the entire park site. This series also includes policy creation files; audits; and studies relating to energy conservation, environmental impact, and accessibility. For more information on accessibility, see the Accessibility subseries under Series II: Program Files, Subseries A: Interpretation. For more information regarding environmental impact at INDE, see individual building files under Series III: Reference File, Subseries A: Building Files or Series VII: Chief of Interpretation and Visitor Services, Subseries B: Christopher Schillizzi.

B. SUBSERIES B. STAFF AND STAFF ACTIVITIES, 1948-2010, undated

This subseries includes employee suggestions, biographies, work performance reports, organizational charts, training files, and photographs documenting the tasks of Interpretation and Visitor Services' staff. Folders are arranged alphabetically by subject.

The bulk of this subseries consists of reports titled "Record of Work Performed," which document the daily activities of park rangers, historians, and interpreters. These reports date from 1948 to 1975, and 2001 to 2010. The subseries also includes material documenting the introduction of women as park guides at INDE in the early 1960s. These materials include a report on women as guides, photographs, and newspaper clippings. For staff photographs consult "Staff and Staff Activities" and "Rangers in Action" in Series V: Photographs and Audio-Visual Material.

C. SUBSERIES C. CORRESPONDENCE, 1942-1995, 2007, undated

This subseries includes staff correspondence, requests for information, memoranda, and research requests. It is arranged first alphabetically by subject, followed by staff correspondence arranged by name. The bulk of staff correspondence belongs to the former INDE chief historian, Martin I. Yoelson and dates from 1962 to 1981. Additional Yoelson correspondence is located in the folders of INDE staff Arnold Schoeck and Daniel Sharp, who wrote on behalf of Yoelson.

This subseries also contains correspondence related to the early development of INDE. Records of the City of Philadelphia's preliminary efforts to designate Independence Hall as a national historical site are found in the folder titled "'Memoranda' from 1951 to 1961." Other significant records include a letter from U.S. Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes to President Franklin D. Roosevelt. In the letter, Roosevelt remarks that the transfer of INDE from the City of Philadelphia to the federal government was "an exceptional case" to the suspension of historic park designations during World War II. This letter and other correspondence related to the City's transfer of custody to the park service during the 1950s is located in the "Independence Hall Association and the National Park Service" file.

II. SERIES II. PROGRAM FILES, 1945-2011, undated

This series documents the programs, activities, and publications created for and by the Interpretation and Visitor Services Division at INDE. The series is arranged alphabetically into four subseries: Interpretation, Public Relations, Publications, and Special Events. Photographs separated from this series are found in box 65, and separated oversize items are found in map case drawer 164, folders 2-5.

A. SUBSERIES A. INTERPRETATION, 1951-2011, undated

This subseries details planning for interpretation programs, exhibits, and educational initiatives based on INDE themes. Other documented activities include visitor surveys and accessibility initiatives. The subseries includes correspondence, programs, research, surveys, photographs, and exhibit planning materials. Within this subseries are four subseries: General, Survey and Statistics, Exhibit Planning, and Accessibility.

For records of interpretative programs and activities that occurred at specific building sites, see the corresponding site's "Interpretation" files located in Series III: Reference Files, Subseries B: Building Files.

1. SUB-SUBSERIES 1. GENERAL, 1951-2011, undated

This sub-subseries documents programs and activities created by the Interpretation and Visitor Services Division, including tours, educational programs, and living history programs. The records include planning materials, correspondence, and Program Database Forms, which comprise the bulk of the sub-subseries. These paper forms were used by INDE park staff to suggest and describe ideas for new visitor programs. The files also contain evaluation forms and follow-ups forms. Among the significant interpretive planning records found are annual interpretive program reports, Annual Narratives, interpretive manuals, Long-Range Interpretive Plans, Interpretive Prospectuses, and Statements for Interpretation. Folders are arranged alphabetically by document type or subject. Additional INDE interpretation reports can be found in Series VII: Chief of Interpretation and Visitor Services, Subseries A: Kathleen Dilanardo.

Of interest in the sub-subseries are the materials relating to artists in the park and Sound and Light programs. Sound and Light records contain a 1968 survey detailing displays and planning for this program's installation (1955-1974). Introduced at INDE in 1962, Sound and Light was an entertainment and educational display of sound and light developed by the company Lumadrama. Additional Sound and Light presentations in the sub-subseries include The American Bell (1962) and A Nation Is Born (1970). The artists in the park records document artists commissioned by INDE for specific projects such as sculptor of "The Signer," Evangelos Fudakis; painter of the "Signing of the Constitution," Louis Glanzman; as well as park residence program artists. Of note is the commission agreement made with the Daughters of the American Revolution and Louis Glanzman for the painting "Signing of the Constitution," which celebrates the Bicentennial of the Constitution in 1987.

2. SUB-SUBSERIES 2. SURVEYS AND STATISTICS, 1951-2007, undated

This sub-subseries documents efforts by Interpretation and Visitor Services to track INDE visitation and usage. The sub-subseries includes surveys, statistics, and reports. Of note is the first interpretive survey evaluating the visitor experience at INDE compiled by interpretive planners Robert Rose and Albert Manucy and historian James R. Sullivan. Folders are arranged alphabetically by document type.

3. SUB-SUBSERIES 3. EXHIBIT PLANNING, 1953-2010, undated

This sub-subseries documents the planning, preparation, and installation of several exhibits at INDE. The sub-subseries includes proposals, designs, reports, publications, research material, scripts, photographs, an audio cassette, posters, correspondence, and images on compact discs. The Exhibit Planning sub-subseries only contains records pertaining to exhibits incorporating several sites. Folders are arranged alphabetically by exhibit type. For records of exhibits hosted at specific building sites, see the corresponding site's "Interpretation" files located in Series III: Reference Files, Subseries B: Building Files.

The bulk of the sub-subseries documents the "Art Institute Poster Project," "Benjamin Franklin's 300th Birthday," the "Washington-Rochambeau Revolutionary Route," the "Crisis in the Capitol City: Yellow Fever," and the "Wayside Exhibit Plan." The "Art Institute Poster Project" was a collaboration between INDE and the Art Institute of Philadelphia for the production and display of posters by Art Institute students. The “Benjamin Franklin’s 300th Birthday” exhibit records contain graphic designs and image requests. The exhibit, titled “Looking through Franklin’s Eyes,” premiered in 2006. The “Crisis in the Capitol City: Yellow Fever (1993)” exhibit observed the two-hundred anniversary of yellow fever outbreak in Philadelphia. The “Washington-Rochambeau Revolutionary Route” records from 2006 document INDE’s participation as a cultural landmark on this route stretching from Rhode Island to Virginia. INDE also hosted an exhibit and a parade commemorating the route. The “Wayside Exhibit Plan” records document the replacement of waysides at various INHP sites, the most significant updates occurred in the late 1980s and 2010.

4. SUB-SUBSERIES 4. ACCESSIBILITY, 1977-2004, undated

This sub-subseries documents initiatives for creating and expanding programs to people with various disabilities or language barriers. Such initiatives include providing film scripts for hearing impaired individuals or printing photograph albums for individuals who cannot access sites due to disability. Included in this sub-subseries are Braille maps; Braille and large print publications; foreign language brochures, publications, and surveys; reports; and photographs. Folders are arranged alphabetically by subject. Additional foreign language publications can be found in Series II: Program Files, Subseries C: Publications and Series VIII: Interpretation Specialist, Subseries C: Mary Jenkins. For information regarding earlier accessibility services at INDE, see Series I: Administrative, Subseries A: General.

B. SUBSERIES B. PUBLIC RELATIONS, 1946-2010, undated

This subseries contains media permits, television and radio scripts, newspaper clippings, and speeches documenting INDE’s relations with public and media outlets. The speeches files span from 1946 to 1966, although most date from the 1960s. The speeches consist of Department of the Interior officials and historians discussing the development of Independence Hall and subsequent historical events. Radio and television show transcripts include productions by local educational projects and business associations; as well as nationally known shows such as CBS’s “All Around the Town,” “The New Christopher Show,” and “The Phil Sheridan Show.” Permits for these and other radio and television events are filed under “Media Permits.” Media permits cover the years 1954 to 1973, and include requests by news agencies, movie, and television producers to film at INDE. Folders are arranged alphabetically by document type. Additional permits for special events are located in the Series II: Program Files, Subseries D: Special Events. For more speeches, see Series VII: Chief of Interpretation and Visitor Services, Subseries B: Christopher Schillizzi. For other public relations material related to specific exhibits, events, or topics search under the exhibit name, event name, or topic.

C. SUBSERIES C. PUBLICATIONS, 1945-2008, undated

This subseries contains newsletters, bulletins, drafts, fliers, foreign language brochures, handbooks, correspondence, and policies created or used by the Interpretation and Visitor Services Division to convey their interpretive message to visitors. Brochures produced both by INDE and outside organizations are located in the subseries. These brochures cover a variety of historical subjects and sites, with some printed in foreign languages. Other items include a number of publications and articles researched or reviewed by park staff. Folders are arranged alphabetically by subject or publication title.

Of interest in this subseries are Interpretive Bulletins and Site Bulletins. Both bulletin types cover interpretative topics written by INDE staff for training and informational purposes. The Site Bulletins contain information for individual INDE sites and represent a sizeable portion of the subseries. These bulletins were initially printed by INDE, but Eastern National eventually took over the responsibility. Interpretive Bulletins are single issue fliers that contain information on a single topic varying from Peter Jefferson to Venetian blinds. Interpretive Bulletins ended in 1981, and the Factual Flier replaced it from 1982 to 1997.

D. SUBSERIES D. SPECIAL EVENTS, 1954-2004, undated

This subseries documents special events planning and reporting at INDE and contains activity reports, event planning files, permits, and speeches. Activity reports detail the outcome of events and activities hosted by INDE from 1956 to 1978. Permit files contain correspondence concerning the use of INDE grounds, structures, and images. Vietnam War protests and civil rights demonstrations are also documented here. The subseries is arranged alphabetically by event title or subject, with permits and speeches appearing at the end.

Event planning files contain material from both recurring and non-recurring events. Recurring events in the subseries include Constitution Day, Flag Day, Columbus Day, Freedom Week, and various Benjamin Franklin observances. The bulk of non-recurring events consist of various bicentennial observances including: the American Revolution (1976); the signing of the Articles of Confederation (1981); the Treaty of Paris (1983); the Constitutional Convention (1986); the signing of the Constitution (1987); and the signing of the Bill of Rights (1991). The Constitutional Conventional Bicentennial records include material from the "Miracle of Philadelphia" exhibit.

III. SERIES III. REFERENCE FILES, 1852-2009, undated (bulk dates: 1956-2009)

The series contains materials collected and created in the course of research and planning at INDE, including research on various buildings and sites; documents related to the sites; exhibit planning materials; general reference materials gathered by staff; and research on a variety of historical topics. The series is divided into two subseries, Building Files and Research and Reports. Items in this series dating from the nineteenth and early twentieth century constitute newspaper articles from those time periods, not records created by INDE. Oversize items separated from this series are found in map case drawer 164, folders 6 through 11.

A. SUBSERIES A. BUILDING FILES, 1852-2009 (bulk dates: 1956-2009)

Most of buildings represented in the subseries are maintained by INDE; however, some building sites fall outside of INDE's custody or no longer exist. Researchers should note that several buildings in the subseries have varying historical names. While the records use both names, the following names are used to describe them: Independence Hall (State House), Fulton House (Bond House), Merchants' Exchange (Philadelphia Exchange), Second Bank of the U.S. (Customs House), Slate Roof House (Welcome Park), and Thaddeus Kosciuszko National Memorial (Thaddeus Kosciuszko House). The bulk of building files are located under City Tavern, Franklin Court, Independence Hall, Liberty Bell Pavilion, Pemberton House, Second Bank of the United States, and the Visitor Center.

17. SUB-SUBSERIES 17. INDEPENDENCE HALL, 1852, 1861, 1877, 1912-2003, undated

This sub-subseries contains restoration and furnishing plans and examples of tickets used for entry into Independence Hall. Other significant records include brochures, pamphlets, correspondence, and Site Bulletins all documenting Independence Hall's establishment as a World Heritage Site.

18. SUB-SUBSERIES 18. INDEPENDENCE SQUARE, 1940, 1950-1974, undated

19. SUB-SUBSERIES 19. IRVIN BUILDING, 1966-1970

20. SUB-SUBSERIES 20. THADDEUS KOSCIUSZKO NATIONAL MEMORIAL, 1970-1976, undated

21. SUB-SUBSERIES 21. LIBERTY BELL PAVILION, 1974-1997, undated

This sub-subseries contains interpretive audio tape transcripts for the Liberty Bell and information regarding conservation. Constructed in 1976 for the Bicentennial of the American Revolution, INDE removed the Liberty Bell from Liberty Bell Pavilion in 2003 and placed it in Liberty Bell Center. The pavilion was demolished in 2006.

28. SUB-SUBSERIES 28. OLD CITY HALL, 1951-1973, 1998-2001, undated

29. SUB-SUBSERIES 29. PEMBERTON HOUSE, 1962-1990, 1996, undated

This sub-subseries contains a significant number of records for a military exhibit planned at this site between the late 1980s to the early 1990s. The Pemberton House initially housed an Army/Navy Museum, but discussions for a new exhibit began in the 1980s. INDE never completed this exhibit; instead Eastern National made the site its bookshop. The records of the incomplete exhibit include research, exhibit designs, building designs, and exhibit text.

30. SUB-SUBSERIES 30. POE HOUSE, 1972, 1978-1982, 1992, undated

31. SUB-SUBSERIES 31. SECOND BANK OF THE UNITED STATES, 1939-1988, 1997-2003, undated

This sub-subseries contains exhibit planning materials, correspondence, and research relating to the Second Bank of the United States' exhibit of the park's portrait collection. Several iterations of this portrait exhibit have appeared at the Second Bank Portrait Gallery; the most recent exhibit documented is from 2004.

32. SUB-SUBSERIES 32. SLATE ROOF HOUSE, 1971, 1978-1982, undated

This sub-subseries includes research regarding structural details for the Slate Roof House, which was a proposed INDE site project that never came to fruition. Rather than rebuild a full-scale reproduction of the Slate Roof House, the site became Welcome Park, dedicated to William Penn's arrival in Pennsylvania in 1682. It opened in 1982 in observance of this event's 300th anniversary. The records documenting Welcome Park include interpretive planning materials. For a comprehensive documentation of the Welcome Park project development, see the Construction Project Records.

33. SUB-SUBSERIES 33. TODD HOUSE, 1950-1970, 1985, 2004, undated

34. SUB-SUBSERIES 34. VISITOR CENTER, 1951, 1972-1994

This sub-subseries contains planning records for exhibits hosted at the Visitor Center, most notably the "Promise of Permanency," the Loire stained glass panels, and "Red Groom's Philadelphia Cornucopia." There are also numerous records for the film script of "Independence," including drafts and revisions. Independence Visitor Center replaced the Visitor Center in 2003.

35. SUB-SUBSERIES 35. WALNUT STREET HOUSES, 1939-1958

36. SUB-SUBSERIES 36. GENERAL, 1958-1978, undated

37. SUB-SUBSERIES 37. INDEPENDENCE VISITOR CENTER, 1996-2009

This sub-subseries documents INDE activities at the Independence Visitor Center, which is operated by the Independence Visitor Center Corporation. This site opened on November 21, 2001, replacing INDE's existing Visitor Center. Records include images, image requests, and images on compact disc for the exhibit "Seizing Freedom: The Underground Railroad in Philadelphia."

38. SUB-SUBSERIES 38. LIBERTY BELL CENTER, 2003

B. SUBSERIES B. RESEARCH AND REPORTS, 1876-2006, undated (bulk dates: 1950-1980)

This subseries contains articles, bibliographies, copies of archival documents, correspondence, maps, newspaper clippings, photographs, research guides, research notes, research plans, and research reports covering a broad variety of topics relating to interpretation at INDE. Materials are divided into five sub-subseries arranged in the following order: Archival Collections, Bibliographies, Biographical, Topical, and Research Projects. Photographs separated from this subseries are found in boxes 68-69.

1. SUB-SUBSERIES 1. ARCHIVAL COLLECTIONS, 1915, 1947-1989, undated

This sub-subseries documents efforts to collect research material related to INDE from archival repositories in the United States and abroad. The records contain descriptions, lists, and indexes of various archival collections. Folders are arranged alphabetically by folder title.

There are several folders titled "Collections of Other Repositories: England" containing collection descriptions, correspondence, pamphlets, and a research trip report by INDE historian Sydney Bradford. Bradford made a trip to England in 1956 to conduct research on the restoration and refurnishing of Independence Hall. Many of the folders are marked “checked” or “unchecked,” which appears to indicate whether historians verified the information contained within the folder.

2. SUB-SUBSERIES 2. BIBLIOGRAPHIES, 1952-1994, undated

This sub-subseries contains bibliographies on numerous research topics including the Liberty Bell, Old City Hall, and Benjamin Franklin. Folders are arranged alphabetically by title.

The folder “Bibliographical Projects” contains reports on INDE’s 1952 to 1954 attempt to create a comprehensive bibliography on subjects pertinent to the Office of History and Interpretation staff. The folder includes recommendations for the formatting of index cards used for research. The note card file is located in the INDE Archives. The folder “Preliminary Bibliographical Inventory of Park Historical and Architectural Studies” contains a bibliography of all such studies conducted by National Park Service staff for parks in the system from the 1930s to 1971.

3. SUB-SUBSERIES 3. BIOGRAPHICAL, 1923-1941, 1954-1991, undated

This sub-subseries contains research materials compiled and created by INDE staff on historical figures such as Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Jefferson, King George III, Edgar Allan Poe, George Washington, and the signers of the Declaration of Independence. Folders are arranged alphabetically.

4. SUB-SUBSERIES 4. TOPICAL, 1876-2000, undated (bulk dates: 1952-1982)

This sub-subseries contains records collected and created by INDE staff for research on a variety of historical subjects. Topics include the American Revolution, eighteenth century life, the Liberty Bell, and historic Philadelphia. The sub-subseries contains articles, copies of archival documents, correspondence, newspaper clippings, park publications, photographs, notes, and reports. Folders are arranged alphabetically by title or topic.

5. SUB-SUBSERIES 5. RESEARCH PROJECTS, 1950-1994, undated

This sub-subseries contains correspondence; maps; photographs; research notes and reports; and research strategies implemented by INDE historians. This sub-subseries is arranged alphabetically by folder title.

Of interest in the sub-subseries are the “Administrative History” folders, the Historical Architect’s Notebook files, and the “Historical Base Map Project” folders. The “Administrative History” folders contain correspondence, proposals, legal papers, and financial documents used to write an administrative history of INDE. Constance M. Greiff completed this project in 1985 with the printing of “Independence: The Creation of a National Park.” The two folders titled “Historical Architect’s Notebook A-O” and “Historical Architect’s Notebook P-Z,” contain an unknown architect’s research into eighteenth-century bricks, fences, glass, plaster, plumbing, lighting fixtures, and wallpaper, among other topics. The notebooks may be related to Penelope Hartshorne Batchelor’s research on eighteenth-century architectural construction and crafts files in the Historic Architects Office. The “Historical Base Map Project” folders contain research conducted on the location of buildings and people on park grounds in 1787 and 1800 in order to create maps depicting this information.

IV. SERIES IV. AMERICAN REVOLUTION BICENTENNIAL PROJECT, 1966-1983, 1989, undated

This series contains documentation of INDE’s preparations for the Bicentennial of the American Revolution events. Materials are divided into three subseries arranged in the following order: General, Articles and Publications, and Bicentennial Independence Oral History Project. The American Revolution Bicentennial Records are included here because they were created with the assistance of the History Office. Records dating before 1976 represent planning for the event, while those after 1976 represent reflections and evaluations of the event.

A. SUBSERIES A. GENERAL, 1950, 1967-1980, undated

This subseries contains correspondence, memoranda, notes, plans, programs, and reports documenting the planning of the Bicentennial celebration. Fiscal information is included in the form of appropriations charts, budget estimates, expense reports, and payroll records. Of particular interest are several folders related to the application of funds for preserving Christ Church. Folders are arranged alphabetically by title.

B. SUBSERIES B. ARTICLES AND PUBLICATIONS, 1972-1977, 1989, undated

This subseries includes magazines, newsletters, newspapers, and reports related to the Bicentennial celebration. Individual articles and entire publications are located in the subseries. Also included are loose copies of the Bicentennial Almanac and Bicentennial Daybook, as well as bound copies of the Bicentennial Daybook (January 1774-December 1776). Folders are arranged alphabetically by title of article or publication and then chronologically within each title.

C. SUBSERIES C. BICENTENNIAL INDEPENDENCE ORAL HISTORY PROJECT, 1966-1983, undated

This subseries consists of project administration files, interview transcript files, and audiocassette tapes related to the Bicentennial Independence Oral History Project overseen by George A. Palmer, Deputy Regional Director of the Mid-Atlantic Region from 1955 to 1973. Project administration files include correspondence, memoranda, and articles documenting the organization and management of the oral history project. Folders are arranged alphabetically by folder title.

Interview transcript files consist of release forms, interviewee information forms, and interview transcripts. Annotated rough drafts and final drafts of interviews detail INDE staff members' experiences during the years surrounding the Bicentennial of the American Revolution events. Some interview files include additional correspondence, memoranda, photographs, or other visual materials. Not all transcripts have a corresponding audiocassette. Interview transcript files and audiocassettes are housed separately; each is arranged alphabetically by participant's last name.

V. SERIES V. PHOTOGRAPHS AND AUDIO-VISUAL MATERIALS, 1915-1996, undated (bulk dates: 1953-1994)

This series is divided into five subseries arranged in the following order: Separated Photographs; Technical Services Division Contact Sheets, Negatives, and Slides; Robin Miller Technical Services Division Building and Grounds Slides; John Gray Technical Services Division Slides; and Audio-Visual Material.

A. SUBSERIES A. SEPARATED PHOTOGRAPHS, 1915-1980, undated

This subseries contains photographs removed from the History and Interpretation Records. A large portion of the photographs consist of shots of historic buildings, both within INDE and elsewhere. There are photographs of identified park staff as well as unidentified people. Some photographs have captions.

B. SUBSERIES B. TECHNICAL SERVICES DIVISION CONTACT SHEETS, NEGATIVES, AND SLIDES, 1954, 1971, 1979-1994, undated

This subseries contains images documenting the activities of the Interpretation and Visitor Services Division, in addition to other INDE divisions. The subseries is arranged in alphabetical order according to the following subjects: Buildings and Grounds; Exhibits; Interpretation Activities; Landscaping; Maintenance, Restoration, and Construction; Museum Collections; Park Scenes; Problems and Accidents; Rangers in Action; Safety; Special Events, Non-Recurring; Special Events, Recurring; Special Visitors; Staff and Staff Activities; Staff and Staff Activities, Awards; Staff and Staff Activities, Events; and Volunteers in Parks. The subseries is a compilation of contact sheets, negatives, and slides from numerous photographers at INDE, including staff photographer Tom Davies. Not all images are attributed to a photographer. Folder titles denote whether the images are contact sheets, negatives, or slides. Folders are arranged in alphabetical order.

C. SUBSERIES C. ROBIN MILLER'S TECHNICAL SERVICES DIVISION BUILDING AND GROUNDS SLIDES, 1982

This subseries contains slides of various INDE park sites and buildings taken by contract photographer Robin Miller. Folders are arranged alphabetically by site name.

D. SUBSERIES D. JOHN GRAY'S TECHNICAL SERVICES DIVISION SLIDE COLLECTION, 1975-1996

This subseries is a collection of slides documenting various park activities, staff, and sites. The slides are a collection created by John Gray, a National Park Service employee who maintained audio-visual equipment and was in charge of film projection at various park sites. Many of the slides are by other park staff including Lee Dickinson and Russ Smith as well as other NPS regional photographers. The subseries is arranged in alphabetical order according to the following subjects: Buildings and Grounds; Exhibits; Landscaping; Maintenance, Restoration, and Construction; Museum Collections; Park Scenes; Rangers in Action; Special Events, Non-Recurring; Special Events, Recurring; Special Visitors; and Staff and Staff Activities.

VI. SERIES VI. INDEPENDENCE PARK INSTITUTE, 1987-2010 (bulk dates: 1997-2007)

Independence Park Institute (IPI) is the center for INDE's educational outreach to students and teachers. IPI officially began in 2006 when permanent "learning labs" for visiting students opened within the Independence Living History Center, which was the former Visitor Center. Later, IPI added additional learning labs and administrative offices at 325 Walnut Street. IPI also offers services and resources for teachers including on-site workshops focused on various Revolutionary-Period themes and lesson plans for off-site learning experiences. In addition to these services, IPI contributes to distance-learning initiatives and hosts special events.

This series documents the development and functions of the Independence Park Institute. Records in the series include founding documents; curriculum planning material; correspondence with vendors; and educational resources for teachers. Also included are numerous compact discs containing photographs and completed project documents. The series contains eight subseries arranged in the following order: Development; Electronic Records on Compact Discs; Learning Labs; Other Learners; Publications; Special Events; Teacher Programs; and Teacher Resources. For additional records regarding the development of IPI, consult Series VII: Chief of Interpretation, Subseries B: Christopher Schillizzi.

A. SUBSERIES A. DEVELOPMENT, 1987-2007, undated (bulk dates: 1997-2007)

This subseries details the growth of IPI through fundraising, creating organizational objectives, and developing future programs. The records contain research on other history-based education programs throughout the U.S.; research regarding potential grants and funders; correspondence; promotional materials; business plans; educational objectives; and grant correspondence and applications. There are also records documenting IPI's initial building plans, which include an unsuccessful proposal to occupy the Declaration House (Graff House). The subseries is arranged alphabetically by folder title.

B. SUBSERIES B. ELECTRONIC RECORDS ON COMPACT DISC, 2005-2010

This subseries consists of compact discs containing files relating to IPI's overall activities and functions, including exhibit plans, publications, field tests, educational resources, and grant applications. Additionally, the compact discs contain photographs and images relating to these activities. Many of the files on the discs exist as printed documents, with their related content, in other IPI subseries. The subseries is arranged alphabetically by folder title and then chronologically.

C. SUBSERIES C. LEARNING LAB, 1990-2007, undated (bulk dates: 2004-2007)

This subseries documents the construction and planning for IPI's "learning labs," which are hands-on activity for students that explores historical and archeological concepts. The subseries is arranged alphabetically into three sub-subseries: Archeology Learning Lab, Benjamin Franklin Learning Lab, and History Learning Lab. The records contain correspondence, notes, drafts, photographs, images, and invoices. The bulk of the records consist of learning wall and learning lab planning materials, including label texts; exhibit case and learning wall planning; activity planning; image invoices and requests; and historical research. The records in these subseries are arranged alphabetically by subject or folder title.

1. SUB-SUBSERIES 1. ARCHEOLOGY LEARNING LAB, 1990-2006, undated (bulk dates: 2004-2006)

This sub-subseries documents the "History Found in Pieces" learning lab, which gives students insights into the archeology profession while also teaching them how to use historical documents and archeological findings. The sub-subseries contains planning, research, drafts, and proposals. The records also contain various images proposed for use in the learning lab, as well as information and research on numerous archeology sites. The sites include the Bishop White House, the Todd House, the James Dexter Site, and Franklin Court. All of these sites were potential subjects for the lab, but the James Dexter Site was selected.

2. SUB-SUBSERIES 2. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN LEARNING LAB, 2005-2007, undated

This sub-subseries documents the "Man of Many Talents" learning lab, which creates hands-on activities for students based on Benjamin Franklin's life. This learning lab offers activities related to Franklin's numerous inventions, scientific endeavors, and printing career. Initially created as a temporary exhibit, the lab eventually became a permanent installation due to its success. The sub-subseries primarily contains invoices for materials needed for learning lab activities, in addition to research and exhibit planning materials.

3. SUB-SUBSERIES 3. HISTORY LEARNING LAB, 2004-2007, undated

This sub-subseries documents the “Daily Life and Diversity in the 18th Century” learning lab, which places students in the role of historians and archeologists as they learn about the daily lives of people at four different INDE sites. This sub-subseries contains images, correspondence, photographs, research, surveys, proposals, image requests, and photograph release forms. The records reflect the activities involved in the learning lab; a field test utilized for creating the learning lab; and IPI’s collaboration with the contractor Lynch Exhibits.

D. SUBSERIES D. OTHER LEARNERS, 1998, 2005-2007, undated

This subseries contains educational material intended for INDE visitors unaffiliated with specific school groups. The bulk of the subseries consists of plans for the “Junior Ranger” activity book (2007), an initiative from IPI to educate children on INDE’s interpretative themes through games and activities. Additional materials relate to Boy Scout group visits to IPI.

E. SUBSERIES E. PUBLICATIONS, 1998, 2005-2007

This subseries contains publications produced by IPI. The subseries includes several editions of IPI Update, a newsletter covering IPI initiatives and events.

F. SUBSERIES F. SPECIAL EVENTS, 2005-2007

This subseries documents events taking place outside of IPI’s regular operations, including National Park Week programs and media coverage of Prince Charles and the Duchess of Cornwall Camilla’s visit to IPI in 2007. Additional items relate to IPI’s involvement in INDE’s archeological excavation of the President’s House site.

G. SUBSERIES G. TEACHER PROGRAMS, 1997-2009, undated

This subseries documents the Summer Teachers’ Institute and other teachers’ workshops hosted by IPI. The records contain lesson plans, research produced by teachers, participant surveys, teachers’ work evaluations, and sample lesson plans. Summer Teachers’ Institute topics include “Franklin and the American People,” “Daily Life and Diversity,” and “The Liberty Bell, A Symbol for ‘We the People.’” The subseries is arranged alphabetically by program title, and then chronologically within that program.

H. SUBSERIES H. TEACHER RESOURCES, 1999-2007, undated

This subseries contains resources based on INDE interpretive themes and intended for off-site educational activities, such as distance-learning activities, lesson plans, curriculum planning, guide books, and field trip preparation. Resources include the “Electronic Field Trip,” a film developed by IPI in conjunction with Ball State University in 2006, as well as “Teacher’s Guides” to Revolutionary-era figures. Lesson plans for teachers cover topics such as slavery, Benjamin Franklin, and “Daily Life and Diversity in the 18th Century.”

VII. SERIES VII. CHIEF OF INTERPRETATION AND VISITOR SERVICES, 1967-2003, undated (bulk dates: 1986-2002)

This series documents the responsibilities and duties of the Chief of Interpretation, which include overseeing the Interpretation and Visitor Services Division, serving as the division’s spokesperson, and coordinating projects within INDE and with outside organizations. This series is arranged chronologically by the creator’s respective term in the following order: Kathleen Dilanardo and Christopher Schillizzi.

This subseries contains the records generated by Kathleen Dilanardo during her tenure in Interpretation and Visitor Services Division. Dilanardo began as the Chief of Visitor Services and later became the Chief of Interpretation and Visitor Services. She began working for INDE in November 1975 and transferred to the NPS Regional Office in 1995.

This subseries contains various files documenting the overall function of the division, including calendars of events, Statements for Interpretation, staff lists, schedules, and special events. The records also include brochures, correspondence, and press releases. Of particular interest is a signage survey performed in the late 1970s. The survey files contain sign inventories; photographs of signs; information about the signs; and associated maps. Folders within the subseries are arranged alphabetically by title.

This subseries contains records generated by Christopher Schillizzi during his term as the Chief of Interpretation and documents his role in supervising numerous construction projects, exhibits, and activities. The subseries contains correspondence, exhibit planning materials, architectural drawings, drafts, and reports. The subseries is arranged alphabetically by subject, site, or exhibit title.

The bulk of the records document Schillizzi’s role in the planning and development of Independence Mall, which entailed the Independence Park Institute, the Independence Visitor Center, the Liberty Bell Center, and the National Constitution Center. The records for the Independence Visitor Center include Memoranda for Agreements (1999-2003) between the National Park Service and the Independence Visitor Center Corporation. Records from the Liberty Bell Center document the site’s construction and planning for the permanent exhibit’s images and text.

This subseries also contains records of Schillizzi's involvement in planning several exhibits, including the Magna Carta exhibit (2002), the archaeology-themed exhibit "Beneath Your Feet (2001-2003)," the Second Bank Portrait Gallery (1999-2003), and the "Great Essentials" exhibit. The bulk of the exhibit records relate to the Magna Carta exhibit of 2002, INDE's second display of this document. The "Great Essentials" exhibit records include plans for displaying copies of the Declaration of Independence, the Articles of Confederation, and the Constitution of the United States, with the Syng Inkstand.

VIII. SERIES VIII. INTERPRETATION SPECIALIST, 1949, 1965, 1975-2010, undated (bulk dates: 1983-2003)

This subseries documents the responsibilities and duties of Interpretation Specialists, the park position responsible for interpreting the story of INDE to visitors and managing changing interpretive objectives. The Interpretation Specialist also plans the safety policies for INDE resources and visitors, which extends to ensuring reasonable accessibility to INDE sites for disabled, senior citizen, and non-English speaking visitors. The records reflect these responsibilities and include planning materials for exhibits, foreign language brochures, and waysides. This series is arranged chronologically by the creator's respective term in the following order: Ron Thomson, Mary Reinhart, and Mary Jenkins. The subseries are arranged alphabetically by subject or title.

A. SUBSERIES A. RON THOMSON, 1983-1997, undated (bulk dates: 1983-1987)

This subseries contains records generated by Ron Thomson during his term as Interpretation Specialist and documents his role in planning "The Promise of Permanency," INDE's Bicentennial of the Constitution exhibit. The records document INDE's collaboration with IBM and Bell Telephone Company to provide interactive digital content for this exhibit, which opened in 1987. The records include agreements between INDE and these organizations, as well as news coverage and publicity about the exhibit. Other records include Thomson's discussions with Albert Woods Design Associates, a contractor involved in the exhibit's design.

B. SUBSERIES B. MARY REINHART, 1980-2004, undated (bulk dates: 1996-2003)

This subseries contains records generated by Mary Reinhart during her term as Interpretation Specialist and documents her role in planning for several interpretive exhibits and activities. Reinhart began working for the National Park Service in 1968 and retired in 2010. The bulk of records document Reinhart's review of the interpretive content for the sound and light show, "Lights of Liberty," produced by Historic Philadelphia, Inc. This program interpreted the events leading to the American Revolution in Philadelphia through an audiovisual light show that premiered on July 9, 1999 and took place at various sites throughout the park. The program ceased running in 2010.

The subseries also includes records from INDE's 2003 sketches of the Liberty Bell's tours through America. The event titled "Liberty in Motion" utilized these sketches to celebrate the Liberty Bell's move into the new Liberty Bell Center. Other records document Reinhart's role in planning for the Second Bank Portrait Gallery exhibit from 1999 to 2001 and her involvement in the interpretive content of City Tavern from 1980 to 1999.

C. SUBSERIES C. MARY JENKINS, 1949, 1965, 1975-2010, undated (bulk dates: 1997-2003)

This subseries contains records generated by Mary Jenkins during her term as the Interpretation Specialist and documents her role in Interpretation and Visitor Services Division. Jenkins began working for the National Park Service in 1974, but only segments of her career were spent with the division. Her responsibilities outside of Interpretation and Visitor Services included serving as the liaison between INDE and the Independence Visitor Center Corporation, and working on special events at INDE.

The subseries contains correspondence, drafts, brochures, illustrations, and "first day of issue" stamps. Records reflect the creation of wayside exhibit plans, foreign language brochures, and "Liberty in Motion" event planning. Of interest is the "Guides' Guide" project. This was a training guide intended for INDE bus tours, but the project was abandoned due to licensing issues. Folders are arranged alphabetically by subject or title.
